Kayla Schultz, mentor2.0 Coordinator (Freshman & Sophomore)

Kayla is a graduate of Albion College with degrees in Anthropology and Religious Studies. Though her career pathway was in the field of archaeology, Kayla pursued her passions and talents into the world of education and non-profits. She served in the AmeriCorps for two years previous to moving to Milwaukee where she currently works as a mentor2.0 Program Coordinator with Big Brothers Big Sisters.

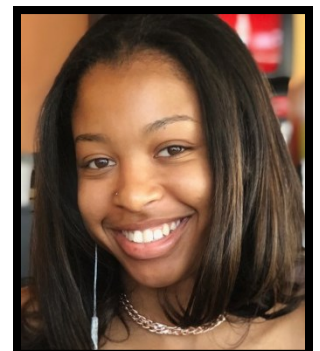

Erica Jackson is a junior at Marquette University studying Social Welfare and Justice and Criminology as double majors. Erica belonged to Student Government and Black Student Council. She also served as the Senator of her residence hall and helped found a club called Center for Urban Teachers. She currently works as a Center Administrator for both Northside and Parklawn Metropolitan YMCAs.

Carissa Langenhuizen is a current junior at Marquette University in the business school getting a double major in Information Systems and Marketing. She will graduate in May of 2019 with a Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration. In her free time at school she enjoys being a part of many student groups and actively participates in Big Brothers Big Sisters.

Jaiden Lucas is a junior at Clark Atlanta University. She is currently studying Psychology with a minor in Counseling.

Dominique Smith is a graduate of Cardinal Stritch University where she achieved her M.S. in Educational Leadership. She received her B.A. in History from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh with a minor in African American Studies. While in undergrad, Dominique belonged to the Black Student Union, Dance Team, and History Club. She also worked for the Dean of Students and Admission's Office. She currently works as a Residence Life Coordinator at Cardinal Stritch University. She volunteers as a Big Sister for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Milwaukee.

Jameelah Mahmoud serves as the Administrative Assistant to the VP of Programs as well as in a supportive role to the Programs Services Department. Growing up in New York City, she attended the Madison Square BGC Club in the Bronx at the Joel E. Smilow Club. Ms. Mahmoud has worked for a variety of non-profits in NYC and Milwaukee and she is passionate about working with youth with the goal of expanding their opportunities. Jameelah has a BA in liberal arts with a minor in Psychology from the American International College in Springfield, MA. Fun Fact: I gave a book "review" on Reading Rainbow as a kid.

Adrian Flores is currently a Program Coordinator for the Graduation Plus program with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee. He earned a Bachelor's of Science in Business Management and a Bachelor's of Science in Public Affairs Management from Northland College (2013) and his Master's in Business Administration from Cardinal Stritch University (2017). He is a current member of the Hispanic Professionals of Greater Milwaukee, Wisconsin Association of College Admissions Counselors, and volunteers with youth basketball teams in the city.

Nidra Moore is a graduate of Cardinal Stritch University/Class of 05'. She is currently a Registered Nurse and volunteers as an Adult Achiever for the YMCA of Metropolitan Milwaukee. Quote: "If at first you don't succeed, dust yourself off and try again."
