

SCHOOL-BASED MENTORING

- Volunteers meet with a child weekly, at an area partner school near campus.
- Volunteers promote academic success and build confidence while also having fun!
- The daytime schedule works well for many college students and offers flexibility.
- Matches are based on interests, personality, and professionally supported.
- Mentoring is in a group setting with planned activities and a site monitor present.
- Recommend 2+ semesters to build an impactful relationship.

Questions? Email startsomething@bbbsmilwaukee.org to learn more!

Scan below to apply:

CARDINAL STRITCH
UNIVERSITY

